Comment:

S&A is a big company that respect workers and villagers. Marden is well supported because S&A staff and Hereford economy grows with them. S&A is taking a big step, expanding the business, and I have to say that is a very good news. With the situation around the world and with all fears around everyone, i am happy to support the project. Means that not only Marden shops, school and bus services will grow i think this project is welcome to make Marden and Hereford economy higher and stronger. well done to S&A to have a vision for the future. Thank you
