Nature of feedback: Objecting to the application

Comment: To whom it may concern,

I am writing to object against the proposal to build new properties on Herefords beloved Lugg meadows.

From my experience as a young person living in Hereford, green spaces are vital for mental and physical wellbeing. For people without a car, having accessible green spaces in the city allow people to exercise and enjoy these peaceful areas within walking distance of town, inevitably improving overall wellbeing. Myself and many others agree that new housing developments are an eyesore and lack character. The Lugg meadows also crucially provide a home for wildlife, which has rapidly declined due to the destruction of green spaces. Please do not contribute further to this decline.

Please keep Hereford green and respect our nature spots, we do not have much left.

Kind regards,
Hannah Thimm
