Hi Carl

Elaine has asked me to answer - basically the only variation is to retain the existing (current) site levels rather than stepping the houses within the site, everything else remains the same

Let me know if you need anything further

Kind Regards

Dave, can you please respond to Carl Brace regarding the below. I don't understand what he is asking for.

Thanks

I write regarding your planning application.

Please can you provide by return a list of amendments from the previously approved plans 150248/F you are applying for. This list will form part of the supporting details and application determined on these listed alterations only.

It is difficult for third parties to appropriately comment without such information
