Subject: holiday use of former pig sty

Dear Mrs Gibbard,

Further to our meeting this morning it appears that the building has been used on occasions for unauthorised purposes, namely holiday letting.

Whilst buildings within the residential curtilage may be used for any purpose ancillary to the dwelling such a use does not fall into that category.

Furthermore, based on the plan submitted when permission for the replacement dwelling was approved, it appears that this land does not lie within the residential curtilage, and consequently permission should have been sought for the conversion work.

If you propose to submit a retrospective planning application to seek to regularise the matter please do so within 28 days and let me know. If I hear nothing and nothing is received by then I will assume no such application is to be submitted and continue accordingly.

If you have any queries regarding this matter please do not hesitate to email me.

Yours Sincerely

Mark Tansley

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.
