Mon 16th December, 2013.

Dear Sirs,

RE : Planning Appeal :- APP/W1850/A/13/2206638

I am writing in SUPPORT of Mr Cockburn's appeal.

Pennoxstone Farm is a local family business which, with the high-intensity of management inputs, provides significant economic/cash spending in the area especially into the support services industry.

The large number of employees necessary for the harvesting also have major domestic household spending patterns in local shops.

Pennoxstone's polytunnels are well landscaped with tree and hedgerow plantings; these plantings, which actually improve the potential bio-diversity of the South Herefordshire countryside, would probably be un-economic to maintain if only arable crops were grown in the absence of tunnels.

Soft-fruit polytunnels are temporary structures which are not a permanent change to the countryside.

I want us to be able to buy local produce in our local area, which makes environmental as well as economic sense.

Yours faithfully,
R. Oakeley.

High Mead, Bromsash, Ross-on-Wye.
