Subject: RE: 160358 - Amended house design to plot 5 and retention of existing dwelling

Good Morning Roland

The existing house is to be retained - we plan on removing the rear single storey flat roof extension and thats pretty much it.

The houses will be re-roofed, re-rendered, new matching windows (to new development)

Anything done will be under PD rights but we will probably submit a certificate of lawfulness application when works are near completion to satisfy future purchasers solicitors.

I havent even surveyed it yet!

Shout if there is a real problem.

Kind Regards

David Kirk
